We have prepared this information and an easy to read fact sheet to explain what types of information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we may share it. It covers all affiliates of Arlington Heritage Group including AmeriServ Trust and Financial, the trust custodian.

We hope that you will read through all the details of Arlington's official position on privacy. At the very least, however, we want you to know that Arlington uses information we know about you responsibly to provide you with the services that you have requested.

At no time do we provide account or personal information to non-Arlington companies for the purpose of independent telemarketing or direct mail marketing of any non-financial products or services of those companies. In addition, we do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about trust company clients, except as permitted by law.

Arlington respects your privacy.

As technology continues to advance, you can be sure Arlington will provide up-to-date safeguards to keep your personal financial information confidential and secure. Your trust is important to us and we are committed to protecting your privacy, whether you do business with us on the Internet, in person or via telephone or mail.
